About the course:

Constitutional Law is the backbone of the legal structure of the country. The motive behind writing this book is to help out not only students but anyone who wants to understand the Constitution might get a basic understanding of its provisions.

The Constitution was a handwritten document, and not typed and printed, a total of 283 members of the constituent assembly signed the Constitution, which came into effect on 26th January 1950. It is the longest written document in the world, it took 2 Years, 11 Months and 18 Days for the assembly to finish writing the entire Constitution.

Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the first Law Minister of free India, a jurist, an economist, and a social reformer, was the Chairman of the committee. He also carries the tag of “Father of Indian Constitution”. It was raining cats and dogs outside the parliament, the day Constitution was signed, and this was considered to be a good omen by the assembly members.

The Constitutional law was enacted on 26th November 1949 & came into force on 26th November 1950. The basic ideas behind the drafting of the Indian Constitution have been enshrined in the Preamble of the India Constitution has rightly been described as key to the minds of the makers of the Indian Constitution.

The Online Certificate Course offered by Oriental University in Collaborations with CYBERTALKINDIA, intends to spread awareness among the general public about the framing, importance and the need of the constitution in the country.
